Professional bricklaying expert in Toowoomba “Get laid by the best!”

Southern Cross Bricklaying

Southern Cross Bricklaying began in 1996 as a partnership between four bricklayers. Over the next five years some partners left in order to pursue other careers. By 2002, we had become fully established, with Ricky Brunner as the sole proprietor. Now operated for almost 20 years, we offer experience in both domestic and commercial block and bricklaying.

As one of the largest bricklaying companies in Toowoomba and the Darling Downs, employing over 30 staff, you can be sure that when you work with Southern Cross Bricklaying, you will receive prompt, quality work from the start of your bricklaying project until its completion.
